China Products

Market Is Firm
Tendency Upward
Better Feeling

The market for various China products has retained a firm tone and prices are generally maintained at higher levels. The tendency is again upward owing to steady buying by consuming centers abroad. There has also been covering by shorts, while speculative offerings have been light, though there has been little or less realizing on advances. Business has been checked to some extent by the raising of prices by Chinese dealers. The outlook for business, although much better than in previous weeks, is regarded by not a few as encouraging. There is undoubtedly a better feeling, but transactions are stifled by want of sufficient offerings, the stocks here being light in many instances. It is inevitable that in the absence of sufficient cargo on hand business should be difficult of execution.

The movement of sesamum seeds showed a further increase last week, London buyers offering to buy cargo afloat or for November-December shipment at £25.0 and £25.10 per ton. This marks a big rise over a couple of weeks ago, when London was only quoting £23 per ton. To what extent the recent increase in the European rate is the result of a genuine trade demand it is not known, but it is believed that speculators who had sold short previously are anxious to cover at present.

For distant shipments the rate being offered by the London buyers is only £24 per ton, so it would seem that the shorts are busy this time. The local quotation is Tls. 8.10 per picul, at which price some business was done. A foreign firm had been obliged during the past week-end to come into the market and make purchases of 300 tons at this rate owing to a Chinese dealer defaulting to deliver.

STOCKS HERE LIGHT

Stocks of sesamum seeds in Shanghai are light, being estimated to be in the region of some 500 tons. It is interesting to remark that since the opening of the season about 2,000 tons of these seeds had been sold by Chinese dealers for shipment, while during the same period Hankow dealers had sold 30,000 tons. In both Hankow and Shanghai stocks of this product are extremely light, but in the interior there appear to be ample supplies. The Chinese dealers are holding for higher values, confident that they will secure same. They are more concerned at the moment over their holdings of beans, and have been taking advantage of the present values and disposing of their stocks. Chinese beans are quoted high, and the dealers are of the opinion that the peak has been touched.

Chinese dealers in Hankow are experiencing difficulty in delivering sesamum seeds that they sold to exporters. A good many of them stand to lose large sums for they contracted sales at seven taels per picul, and against the present market rate the loss is big. The present situation might very likely induce a few to go to Ningpo, and forget business for a while. Although the Chinese crop this season is better than last, shipments have not been exceptionally heavy, owing to offerings being restricted in quantity. There is a good demand but not sufficient supplies to fill the needs of the buyers. As well, local prices are difficult to put business at. Probably as the season advances (it closes in March) deliveries will be heavier.

RAPESEEDS ARE QUIET

Rapeseeds are very quiet, Japanese interests having withdrawn from the market, showing a disposition to operate in India instead of here. Prices of Indian rapeseeds, it might be added, are cheaper by some three to four percent compared with Chinese rapeseeds. Stocks in Shanghai appear to be almost exhausted, so that even if trade were pos-

GET VACCINATED!

Smallpox is once again taking its annual toll.

Hongkong within the past few weeks has had 620 cases from which 500 deaths resulted, and an energetic campaign to have all foreigners and as many Chinese vaccinated as possible—particularly servants in foreign employ—is now under way. Over 3,000 have been vaccinated recently.

Shanghai has a number of smallpox cases. Four were reported among foreigners in the International Settlement last week. The Chinese City is reported to be particularly populated with walking cases of the disease this Autumn.

All foreigners in Shanghai should be vaccinated immediately and have their servants vaccinated.

Weather.

Fine and cold weather. The maximum temperature yesterday was 66.2 and the minimum 54.9, the figures for the corresponding day last year being 67.3 and 40.6.

TERROR FELT IN CANTON AS BATTLE LINES DRAW CLOSE

Families Of Officials Seeking Chance To Flee

STREETS ORDERLY

Tan Yen-kai Trying To Rejoin Cantonese Forces

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Canton, Nov. 14.—The excitement in Canton, caused by the arrival in disorder of many troops from the Eastern front and the removal of the families of officials from the city, continues unabated in spite of the efforts of Dr. Sun Yat-sen and the other Cantonese leaders to calm the people.

This evening fighting was still in progress near Canton along the Canton-Kowloon Railway, and the troops who had retreated here have been ordered to return to the front within five hours. Many officials are preparing to leave the city in spite of the entreaties of Dr. Sun for them to stand by their posts.

No one knows today who will govern, or rather tax, Canton tomorrow. All the larger hotels flying foreign flags are crowded with the families of officials awaiting a chance to leave the city by the earliest available boats. The streets remain quiet for the present, martial law having been declared and troops patrolling the streets.

All amusement places have been ordered to remain open, but this has not deceived the people as to the real state of affairs for there is little business although all the restaurants are open.

It is reported that General Tan Yen-kai, having failed in Hunan, will return to Canton via Lokching and will arrive on about November 20 to reinforce Dr. Sun's troops.

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Canton Nov. 12.—According to a statement issued by Mr. Eugene Chen, Dr. Sun Yat-sen's private secretary, the Yunnanese Division of the Constitutionalist Army on the evening of November 10 captured Waichow. This is the eighth time that the local authorities have announced the capture of General Chen Chiung-ming's stronghold, but it has in each case proved premature.

(This report has since been denied)

The pawn-shops in Canton have suspended business to avoid subscribing to another military loan. The police have been ordered by the military authorities to collect from $300 to $500 from each pawn-shop, offering as security for the loan from $600 to $1000 worth of revenue stamps.

In order further to swell the war-chest of the Constitutionalist

WAICHOW WAS CAPTURED, SAYS SUN CHIEF NOW

(The following telegram from Eugene Chen, personal representative of Dr. Sun Yat-sen at Canton, was received yesterday by THE CHINA PRESS).

BY EUGENE CHEN

Canton, Nov. 17.—I have to add a footnote to my previous messages regarding the capture of Waichow.

General Fan Shek-shan, who actually commanded the right wing of Dr. Sun Yat-sen's forces which marched against Waichow, has now returned to Canton. His detailed report to Dr. Sun practically confirms the capture of Waichow as first stated in my message of November 11. He had, however, to leave his victory unconsolidated in order to support Dr. Sun's center at Shecklung.

General Fan confirms the death of Hung Hsiao-lung, one of Chen Chiung-ming's principal military leaders, who was killed when General Fan engaged the enemy at Shecklung.

BROKERS FACE BANKRUPTCY AS COTTON SOARS

One New York Firm Under; Several Others Are On Verge Of Failure

BY UNITED PRESS

New York, Nov. 18.—Following bankruptcy proceedings brought against one prominent firm of brokers here it is reported that the rise in cotton prices is ruining a number of Wall St. houses and that the failure of several large brokerage firms is imminent.

Speculators in cotton here, it is said, were entirely unprepared for the sensational rise in price which has come about within recent weeks and have been plunging heavily in the belief that a "break" in the market was bound to occur. So far, however, there have been no signs of a let-down in price, and as a result the "bears" are finding themselves in dire circumstances.

Vaughan To Be Tried In The Higher Court

Samuel C. C. Vaughan, an employee of the Shanghai Water works, was ordered tried before the Supreme Court when his hearing before Magistrate G. W. King in the British Police Court yesterday afternoon.

Vaughan is charged with the attempted murder of a Chinese prostitute in a restaurant on Yalu Road. It is alleged that he shot the girl without cause. She is still in the General Hospital but is expected to recover.

Chief Of Reuters Service Is Visitor In Shanghai

Shanghai just now is host to the young and distinguished chief of the oldest and largest news distribution organisation in the world—Sir Roderick Jones, chairman and managing director of Reuters, Limited.

Sir Roderick arrived by the Empress Sunday night, motoring up from Woosung, and his visit here will be brief, as he is leaving for Peking within a few days in the course of his present world tour. He will be guest of honor at a tiffin to be given by Reuters Shanghai office at the New Carlton this noon, when he will meet representatives of the community, and tomorrow night will be entertained by representatives of the leading Chinese newspapers at a dinner in the Yih Ping Shang Hotel.

Sir Roderick is only 45, and looks even younger. Regarding himself and his work he is modest almost to the point of making it a fault, but with the personal element eliminated he is an affable and animated conversationalist. Slight and spare in figure he gives the impression of boundless and highly effective energy. His comments are free from bias, yet shrewdly to the point, and on the subject pertaining to the garnering and transmission of news he is eloquent.

"One of the most important factors in the promotion of world peace," he declares, "lies in the efficient gathering and transmission of news—but it must be good, clean, objective news, free from bias, in short—the truth."

Free transmission of this sort of news, he holds, with many of the present obstacles removed, will go a great distance toward the elimination of national differences and their consequences, war.

It is with a view to further developing Reuters service along this and other lines that Sir Roderick is making his world tour. Still, he regards it much in the light of a pleasure trip. This in spite of the fact that from the time

PEKING COLD TO POWERS ON CUSTOMS LOAN

New Note Is Planned After Protest Of Ministers Is Ignored

(Eastern News Agency)

Peking, November 19.—With regard to the protest of the ministers for the Four Powers concerning the security right for customs surplus, the Chinese Government has forwarded a reply to the ministers concerned announcing that it cannot comply with the request from the Four Powers.

The Four Powers however, are determined to insist upon their demands to the last. It is expected that on the basis of arrangements to be made between the ministers for the Four Powers and the banks of their respective nationalities, a conference will be held with a view to lodging another protest with the Chinese Government.

DR. SCHURMAN TO MAKE INSPECTION TOUR IN YUNNAN

Peking, Nov. 19.—Dr. Jacob Gould Schurman, American minister to Peking, is leaving here tomorrow on an inspection tour of French Indo-China and Yunnan Province. It is understood that he will return here about the middle of January of next year.

Westa Has His Automobile Back

An automobile belonging to Mr. Arthur West of the staff of THE CHINA PRESS, which was stolen in Szechuen Road on Friday evening, was found yesterday on Rue de l'Observatoire by the French police. Outside of a missing tail-light, battery and spare rear tire the motor car was undamaged and Westa is once more happy.

Hankow Lawyer's Son Admitted To American Bar

For the first time in the history of the American bar in China the son of an attorney already practicing in the American Court for China was admitted to the local bar by Judge Charles S. Lobingier yesterday afternoon.

The latest addition to the American legal fraternity is Mr. Ralph A. Frost, Jr., graduate of the law schools of the University of California and Harvard University, and the son of Mr. Ralph A. Frost, attorney-at-law, of Hankow.

Mr. Frost's name was proposed by Mr. S. Fessenden, President of the Bar Association and dean of the local bar, and he was welcomed to the bar by Judge Lobingier in a short but cordial manner. Mr. Frost will practice in Hankow.

PRIEST HELD BY OUTLAWS AFTER RAID IN SHANTUNG

French Father Made Captive Near Changling

BISHOP IS FREED

1,000 Bandits Demand Admission To Army

(Exclusive China Press)

Weihsien, Shantung, Nov. 16.—A French Roman Catholic Bishop and priest were kidnapped by bandits several li from the station of Changling on the Kiaotsi Railway on November 14, according to information received here tonight.

The Bishop was later released by the bandits on condition that he would go to Fangtse and arrange for the bandit chief and 1,000 of his men to be taken into the army, but the priest is still held captive.

The Bishop was warned not to allow the soldiers to interfere with the bandits or the priest's life would not be safe. They desire no ransom money, they say, but will not release their captive until they are given uniforms and the promise of steady pay. Several priests went to Fangtse yesterday to assist in the negotiations.

Although the local Catholic authorities have received no direct word concerning the reported capture of a Bishop and priest near Changling one of the captives is believed to be Bishop Adeogat Wiltner, Apostolic Vicar of East Shantung, with headquarters at Chefoo. He is supposed to be making a tour of his district at the present time. No information as to who the priest captured is is available. The Catholic missionaries in East Shantung are nearly all Franciscans.

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, Nov. 19.—The civil and military authorities of Shantung have offered a reward of $10,000 to any subordinate who succeeds in rescuing the French priest who was captured by bandits near Changli on November 13 when he was touring his circuit. The actual capture was made while he was staying in the house of a convert. A number of local residents armed themselves with the intention of rescuing him, but the priest beseeched them not to interfere as he desired to prevent bloodshed. The bandits captured another priest, who was subsequently released in order to carry a message to the authorities that they wanted to be enrolled in the regular Army. Various measures have been adopted with a view to expediting the release of the priest. The authorities have already located the whereabouts of the bandits.

Business Low In Russ Border States

Wu Pei-fu Buys River Steamer To Fight Szechuanese

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, Nov. 19.—It is reported from Ichang that General Wu Pei-fu has bought one river steamer suitable for transportation of troops between Ichang and Wanhsien and has sent an agent to Shanghai to purchase another. It is now becoming obvious that Wanhsien will be the advanced base for another expedition against the Szechuanese.

Secretary Hughes Starts Red Cross Drive

AMERICAN RED CROSS DRIVE TO START TODAY

Shanghai Expected To 'Go Over Top' By Thursday

Today the Greatest Mother in the world will make her annual appeal to citizens of all nationalities in Shanghai to become members of the American Red Cross.

The Red Cross this morning will begin a three day's intensive drive for members who appreciate the work the organisation has done not only in Shanghai but over the entire world during the past year. The Red Cross is not asking for a million dollars. They want members at only $2 Mex. each and before the drive ends on Thursday evening it is expected the roll of honor will be the longest in the history of the local organisation.

The drive is under the direction of Mrs. Gardner Crane, assisted by a number of members of the American Woman's Club. Booths are located in a number of central downtown centers and all prospective members are requested to sign up in one of them. Applications may also be sent to headquarters in the Robert Dollar building.

Mrs. Crane fully expects Shanghai to 'go over the top' before Thursday night.

Plot For Revolt Revealed In Peru

(Exclusive China Press)

Lima, Peru, Nov. 18.—An extensive plot directed against the Peruvian government, which included plans for the assassination of President Leguia, has been discovered by loyal army officers, it was officially announced here today.

A number of persons, including Senor Martines, a justice of the Supreme Court, and his two sons, have been arrested in connection with the affair.

Ex-Bandit Chief In Shanghai, Report

A report was circulated yesterday in the Chinese press that Sun Mei-yao, erst-while bandit chief of Pao Tzu-ku fame and now brigadier general of the Shantung Army, arrived in Shanghai on Sunday. Inquiries at local Chinese official bureaus, however, failed to confirm the report while officials say that in view of the prospects he has in Shantung for a successful military career, it is not likely that the former brigand would come to this settlement where his safe conduct is at least not guaranteed.

T. C. WHITE GIVEN HEAVY JUDGMENT BY MIXED COURT

G.$50,000 In Salary Arrears And $50,000 Loan Repayment

A heavy judgment against the Wan Chang Mining and Cement Company and in favour of T. C. White, of Peking and Shanghai, was given yesterday morning by Assessor Whitamore and Magistrate Li in the Mixed Court.

The judgment calls for two years arrears in salary at G. $25,000, plus expenses, and for the sum of $50,000 with interest at 12 percent since June, 1921.

Plaintiff's claim alleged that in May, 1921, the managing director of the company, Tang Yu, entered into a contract to pay plaintiff an annual salary for five years of G. $25,000, with travelling expenses for himself and family incurred on business for the company, together with whatever income taxes the American government might impose. Plaintiff was to act as general manager for the company in Changsha, Shanghai and New York. It was further alleged that in June, 1921 the plaintiff loaned the company $50,000 at 12 percent interest with security in the form of railway property in Ichang, Hunan to the appraised value of $100,000. The company, it was claimed, defaulted on both obligations, and in the matter of the security for the loan fraud was alleged, it being declared that the property had been pledged previously.

The defendants pleaded that the managing director, Tang Yu, was not qualified to make the contract, but it was shown that he had previously withdrawn a suit on behalf of the company and that the directors were scattered throughout the country and rarely met. The Court held him qualified to act and gave judgment for Mr. White.

FRANCE NOW DESERTED BY ALLIES, SAYS STRESEMANN

Berlin Leader Hails New Era In Europe

PLEA FOR UNITY

Germany Will Refuse To Surrender Crown Prince

(Reuter's Service)

Berlin, Nov. 18.—Addressing the Executive of the People's Party, which passed a vote of confidence in him, Dr. Stresemann said that the political and diplomatic steps taken by Germany had contributed to placing France in a position she had never before occupied, with both the Anglo-Saxon Powers co-operating towards the same ideals, Italy parting from France and Belgium weakening.

These developments were inaugurating a new era, even if France's next immediate step was further acts of violence.

A winter of terrible hardship was approaching. The Government could not extend industry any immediate help nor could it steam the tide of unemployment. He warned against the consequences of resorting to an unconstitutional form of government, and, in conclusion, declared that Germany would reject any demand for the surrender of the ex-Crown Prince.

(French Wireless through Reuter)

Paris, Nov. 18.—M. Poincare, in a speech at Neuilly today, declared that Germany's defiance of the Treaty in regard to military control and the return of the ex-Crown Prince called for sanctions. "We shall take them unless we obtain satisfaction." Apart from such sanctions, France was determined not to evacuate the occupied territories until all the clauses signed at Versailles had been completely executed and "we are firmly protected against fresh possibilities of aggression." The remainder of the speech dealt with reparatons on the lines of the Premier's speech in the Chamber of Friday.

(French Wireless through Reuter)

Paris, Nov. 18.—At a banquet of the Republican Committee of Commerce and Industry yesterday evening, at which 1,500 guests were present, the Premier spoke in favour of Republican union. He declared: "The hour for concessions is passed. The Treaty will be carried out willy-nilly. To leave Germany time and means to prepare for new aggression would be a crime against posterity. We shall not commit it".

(French Wireless through Reuter)

Paris, Nov. 18.—Speaking today at the unveiling of a war memorial at Neuilly, M. Poincare declared that France would have rendered immense services for universal regeneration if she had not been obliged to repair her own dangers. If France demanded the execution, pure and simple, of the Treaty, it was because scrupulous respect for promises exchanged was always for her an elementary principle of loyalty, and also because the whole of the Conventions of Versailles, St. Germain, the Trianon and Neuilly formed one edifice, all parts of which held together and which could not be shaken at one point without collapsing everywhere. By defending her rights, France was, therefore, also maintaining the rights of her Allies, Italy, Czecho-Slovakia, Poland and Rumania. The French intended to remain firm guardians. The magnates of the Ruhr were trying to impose on the workers the charge of capitulation, but France refused to favor selfish combines. Although the Reparation Commission possessed instruments competent to estimate the German capacity for payment, out of regard for the Allies with whom France had always been happy to be in accord, France consented to a meeting of experts on condition that she should not again have to pay the costs of an agreement. The French proposed an enquiry into German possessions, including the riches and currency concealed abroad. The French plan appeared to be restrited in time, but

M. Poincare doubted whether it would not have been found too broad in scope and whether France intended to seek German possessions where they were did not embarrass certain persons. Especially when it was seen that France refused to look aside and to reduce the German debt, the zeal for the conference immediately cooled. The only method now was to apply the Treaty and France would be able to bring Germany to payment. France did nt despair of convincing her friends. Her method was good as was proved by facts. "We shall finally decide, and, certain that we are right, we shall pursue our path in peace without uneasiness or faltering." But France also insisted on her security. For a long time Germany had done as she liked with regard to the stipulations guaranteeing France's security. She had paralysed the action of the inter-Allied mission. She would endeavor surreptitiously to reconstruct the military formations forbidden by the Treaty. She had authorised the return of the Crown Prince, who was inscribed at the head of the list of war criminals. These were bold defiance of the Allies, impudent violations of the Treaty, insolent attacks on peace. Sanctions were called for. France would take them if she did not obtain satisfaction. France was still resolved not to evacuate the occupied territory before all the clauses signed at Versailles had been completely carried out and France had been solidly secured against possibilities of fresh aggression.

N.Y.U. ALUMNI WILL ORGANISE CLUB THURSDAY

Some time ago at a social gathering of a few of New York University garduates, the idea of organising a club was suggested and an organisation committee elected to get the names and addresses of the graduates and former students of the University who are now in Shanghai. The committee now recommends the calling of a meeting to formally organise the club. All graduates and ex-students of New York University who have not yet sent in their names are requested to communicate with Mr. Huan Wong of the Auditor's Office, S. N. R. and S. H. N. R., North Station.

The meeting is set for 7:30, Thursday evening, Nov. 22, and will be held at the American Returned Students Club, Nanking Road.

Chinese Sentenced To Seven Years For Abduction Of Girl

Seven years' imprisonment was imposed by the Mixed Court yesterday upon a painter named Ting Zen-foh who abducted a 12-year-old girl from Shanghai and sold her into a brothel in Ningpo.

Police testimony was to the effect that the accused met the girl on the street and lured her into Frenchtown by offering her money and clothing. He then took her to Ningpo and sold her. The girl, however, stole $2 and made her escape, returning to Shanghai. On Sunday she was walking along the street with her mother when she saw the accused and called a constable to arrest him.

The accused admitted abducting the girl and taking her to Ningpo but denied that he had sold her into a brothel, declaring that he left her with relatives.

of his arrival late Sunday night he has been almost constantly seeing people and receiving their views on a multitude of subjects related to the work of his organisation. He will proceed from here to Peking and thence back to Japan, then to Hongkong and other points south, visiting the various agencies, then going on to India and other countries.

While in America, Sir Roderick conferred with and was the guest for several weeks of Mr. Frank C. Noyes, president of the Associated Press, a friend of many years standing, the visit further emphasing the cordial relations existing between the two major British and American news organisations.

Sir Roderick was also a visitor at the White House, where he spent a pleasant hour with President Coolidge.

"I was warned," he said, "that I should find the President rather dour and that he was a man who rarely 'talked.' And for the first ten minutes the prophesy seemed justified. Then, somehow, we both seemed get to talking and Mr. Coolidge appeared to be about as animated as I. At the end of half an hour, when I rose to go, realising that there were any number of senators and others waiting to see him, he pressed me to keep on with the subject. He is a man who thaws with acquaintance."

The most eloquent testimonial to Sir Roderick's ability as an executive and to his genius for news organisation and distribution is the fact that today, he holds the highest position Reuters has to offer.

Joining the Reuters service in South Africa, he became a regular correspondent by the end of the Boer War, and in 1902 was transferred to London to take charge there of South African news.

Four years later, when he was only 26 years old, he was promoted to the position of General Manager, in direct charge of South and Central Africa. Never before in the history of Reuters had so young a man been given such a responsible position. Reuters was then, as now, the predominating news agency in the particular territory to which he was assigned. He was responsible for many offices and more than 100 correspondents.

TAKES FULL CHARGE

In 1915 the young journalist was recalled to London to succeed Baron de Reuter in charge of the entire Reuters organisation.

Sir Roderick is fond of recalling the early days in Reuters history.

"Reuters, you know," he says, "was established long before the days of railways and telegraphs. A young bank clerk on the continent conceived the idea of beating the mail coach and mounted courier as a means of conveying news.

"He started a service of carrier pigeons between Brussels and Aix-la-Chapelle, used to distribute the latest market prices. He prospered, and when the telegraph came, he was one of the first to see its possibilities.

"This bank clerk was Julius Reuter, who later became Baron de Reuter.

"Presently Reuter began in a small way in England, opening offices in London in 1851. At first the founder of Reuters, Limited confined himself to stock exchange information. Soon, however, he extended his business to commercial and then to general news."

The agency now has fourteen departments, heavily manned at headquarters, with direct branches all over the world. Reuters today is linked up by treaty or contract with the principal agency in every single country in the world.

Allied Officers Seized And Detained By Germans

(Reuter's Service)

Berlin, Nov. 18.—General Nollet left for Paris today probably to call the attention of the French Government to a grave incident likely to give rise to serious consequences which, according to French sources, occurred at Leipzig. One French and one Belgian officer, members of the Dresden section of the Inter-Allied Military Control Mission, were, it is alleged, dragged out of their beds in their hotel at four o'clock this morning, detained in a guard-room for five hours and shamefully molested and insulted before their release was ordered from Dresden. The officers had previously been held up by the Reichswehr while motoring from Dresden to Leipzig and detained for several hours, but they were released on the instruction of a superior officer.

(Reuter's Service)

Berlin, Nov. 18.—A semiofficial statement expresses the utmost satisfaction at Signor Mussolini's speech. It says that the Italian Premier's reparations program mainly agrees with the German Government's plans, but that its fulfilment must remain completely ineffective as long as large German sources of production are withdrawn from the disposal of the German Government, which is resolved to place the entire strength of German economic life as a productive pledge at the service of every solution of the reparations problem which guarantees Germany's independence and future economic life.

(French Wireless through Reuter)

Paris, Nov. 18.—The French press sees in the adjournment until tomorrow of the meeting of the Conference of Ambassadors proof of the desire of the French and British Governments to endeavour to to conciliate their points of view in the question of the return of the ex-Crown Prince and the re-establishment of inter-Allied military control in Germany.

The Petit Parisien recalls that in 1919 Mr. Lloyd George insisted on the inclusion in the treaty of the principles of abolition of conscription and the institution in Germany of long-term enlistment. Now, one of the essential duties of General Nollet is precisely that of discovering whether Germany has established a system of reserves for which the Reichswehr forms cadres. In conclusion the journal states that British opinion cannot find French claims in this connection exorbitant.

(Reuter's Service)

Berlin, Nov. 17.—The Government has protested to the French Government, accusing France of responsibility for lawlessness, anarchy and terrorisation owing to the connivance of French troops with the separatists.

ARGUE OVER UNPAID CLAIM IN U. S. COURT

Ping Kee Judgment Again Before Judge Lobingier

A merry little set-to over the make-up of the American Foreign Fire Insurance Association was staged before Judge Charles S. Lobingier in the U. S. Court for China yesterday when Ping Kee, through Mr. S. A. Moss, of Haskell and Moss, argued an affidavit to discover why the Fireman's Fund Insurance Company had not paid judgment given in the court in favor of Ping Kee for Tls. 6,500.

The judgment was given on July 27 for a consignment of socks stored in a godown which was destroyed by fire. Yesterday Mr. Moss had Mr. H. A. Wiley, manager for the A.M.F.I.A. take the stand. Mr. Wiley denied that there was any agreement between the 16 insurance companies making up the Association which called for the pro rata payment of fire claims, as contended by Mr. Moss. Mr. Wiley said the Fireman's Fund went out of business in China in June, 1921, and said he knew of no claim for Tls. 150,000 which had been paid as late as September, as suggested by Mr. Moss.

Mr. Moss then attempted to probe into the make-up of the Association, but met objections from Mr. Davies of Davies and Bryan, who contended that had nothing to do with the case. Mr. Davies said, and was corroborated by Mr. Wiley, that at the present time the Fireman's Fund has no property or resources in China and had no money or assets of any kind here against which judgment could be given.

Canton In Terror As Battle Nears

Army landlords in Canton City have been requested for the third time since last April to contribute an amount equivalent to a month's rent from their tenants, the Government issuing a receipt which can be converted into money from the revenue a year hence.

Dr. Sun Yat-sen does not favor the idea of holding another Parliamentary session in Canton, as has been suggested, owing to the fact that only 200 Members still remain faithful to the Constitutionalist movement, which was started by the Parliament in Canton in 1917.

The Commanders of the Yunnanese mercenary troops in Canton are still recruiting men from Hunan, Kwangsi and Yunnan.

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Canton, Nov. 13.—There was great excitement in Canton last night on the receipt of the news of the fighting near Shekiung. Many of the residents of the eastern suburbs began to move their belongings to the houses of friends in the west, and some members of the families of officials prepared for flight, if necessary, by registering with the leading hotels under assumed names. Up to four o'clock this afternoon everything was quiet, and earlier in the day reports from General Headquarters stated that the operations were going in favor of the Constitutionalists. They reported that General Hung Shao-lin, one of General Chen Chiung-ming's leading commanders, had been killed.

The Canton-Hongkong telegraphs are still interrupted and messages are being carried by special couriers to Hongkong, whence they are forwarded to their final destination.

A strict censorship has been established in Canton.

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, Nov. 15.—The absence of reports from Canton is taken by Chinese officials and by officials of the Legations as proof that nothing of importance has occurred lately. The only telegram received supports this conclusion, stating that the situation is virtually unchanged. Gen. Chen Chiung-ming's advance guards are within a few miles of Canton, but the whereabouts of his main body is unknown. Meanwhile, Dr. Sun Yat-sen's forces at White Cloud Mountain, are busily preparing for defence.

There seems to be a possibility that General Tan Yen-kai's troops will reach Shuichow, in Kwangsi, where they will entrain for Canton. The Kwangsi troops, however, will probably oppose their march to Shuichow, which is the terminus of the portion of the railway line under the control of Dr. Sun.

Chinese militarists believe that General Chao Heng-ti's army is in close pursuit, in the hope that General Tan will be out off by the Kwangsi forces, thus placing them between two fires.

It is admitted that if General Tan should reach Canton in time to take part in the impending struggle between Dr. Sun and General Chen, the issue might be favorable to the former.

PRES. MADISON TAKES AMERICAN MAIL TOMORROW

Next Mail Due From United States November 27

The next mail for the United States will go on the President Madison, and following the arrival of the Empress of Russia yesterday, mail from the States will arrive on the President Jackson on November 27.

The Madison is due in Shanghai from Hongkong this afternoon, and docks at the China Merchant's Central Wharf about 1 o'clock. The steamer will sail for Seattle at 3 o'clock tomorrow morning, and mail closes at 9 o'clock tonight.

Following the consignment of European mail that arrived on the Kaiser-I-Hind yesterday morning, mail from Europe is coming on the French Mail boat Chambord next Sunday. The Chambord which sailed from Marseilles on October 19, left Saigon at 11 o'clock yesterday morning.

The Shinyo Maru of T.K.K. will leave Woosung for San Francisco via Japan ports and Honolulu Thursday night, and the outgoing tender with passengers for the vessel will leave the Customs jetty at 6 o'clock Thursday evening.

The next mail for Europe will be sent on the Nyanza tomorrow. The liner, which was to sail for London this afternoon, has been delayed and will now leave at daybreak tomorrow. Then tender with outbound passengers for the vessel is to leave the Customs jetty at 6 o'clock this evening.

China Products

sible in this line, it is doubtful if more than very small parcels could be collected. Shipments of rapeseeds from India to the United Kingdom and the Continent from January 1 to September 12 were 231,075 tons against 224,875 tons during the same period last year. The Shanghai rate is Tls. 6.60 per picul. There is a steady demand in Japan for rapeseed oil owing to the approach of the winter.

Although no business in groundnuts has been transpiring in Shanghai, quite a fair volume of transactions has been put through in Tsingtao for shipment to Trieste, Genoa and Dunkirk. During the past fortnight some 3,000 tons of groundnuts were sold by Tsingtao merchants to these consuming centers at yen 8½ per picul. Europe is buying at £22.10 and £22.15 per ton for prompt shipment or November-December, the market in England being steady at this price. The Shanghai quotation is a pound sterling per ton higher, but the rate in Tsingtao works out to the buying offer of Europe.

Stocks of groundnuts in Shanghai are about 2,000 to 3,000 tons. There is no inquiry from the United States owing to the American crop being very good. Although this year's peanut acreage in the United States, estimated by the Department of Agriculture at 33,000, is much less than last year's, the department estimates the 1923 crop at 655 million pounds compared with 623½ million pounds last year. The yield per acre this year is estimated at 703 pounds.

SOYA BEAN MARKET

In groundnut oil there is very little doing, the Canton merchants purchasing small quantities at Tls. 15 per picul. Stocks in Shanghai are small.

In soya beans the market is very quiet as the price at Dairen is far higher than that prevailing in Shanghai. There are large supplies of Chinese beans, the crop in Hankow and Anfel being very good this year. The Shanghai crushing mills are not interested in Dairen beans, the stocks of these in Shanghai being almost nil. The quotation here is Tls. 4.40 per picul, or yen 5.80. It is mentioned that transportation from the interior to Dairen is not smooth, and hence the price has been advancing. A small business in bean oil is being done from Dairen for shipment to Europe at £1.16 per cwt. There is nothing doing for the United States.

The market in bean cakes is steady, the quotation at Dairen being about yen 1.90 per piece. Japan has been purchasing small quantities continuously, and the market is reported to be steady.

Tries To Die By Throwing Self In Front Of Tram

Throwing himself in front of a moving tramcar on Nanking Road, near Fokien Road corner, a Chinese named Daung Dongling attempted to commit suicide Sunday afternoon. The conductor was able to bring the car to a halt before the man was injured and he was taken to the police station and was charged yesterday at the Mixed Court.

Daung declared that the reason for his act was that some time ago he had borrowed $200 from one Chung Shan-ting, giving a fangtan for some land as security. He had repaid the money, but Chung refused to return the fangtan. Chung testified that Daung owed him a further $100, which Daung denied, claiming that this $100 was owed by another man and that he had merely acted as middleman in connection with that loan.

Daung was cautioned by the Court and Chung was ordered held until the fangtan is returned to the would be suicide.

'Y' SECRETARY LEAVING SOON ON FURLOUGH

Mr. Paul Brown, Of Navy Y.M.C.A., And Mrs. Brown Sail Friday

Mr. Paul W. Brown, Executive Secretary of the Shanghai Branch of the Navy Y.M.C.A., with Mrs. Brown, who will sail for San Francisco on the Shinyo Maru on Friday, yesterday gave a farewell tea to their many Shanghai friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown are going to the States on a short furlough and expect to return to Shanghai next April. They are planning to spend some time in Los Angeles, Calif., at Mr. Brown's home, and in Fort Wayne, Indiance, with Mrs. Brown's parents and then to proceed to New York, where Mr. Brown will confer with the Committee of the Army and Navy Department of the Y.M.C.A. concerning important future work of the Navy Y.M.C.A. in China. Shortly after his return to China next Spring, Mr. Brown expects to go to Chefoo to be in charge of the large Navy Y.M.C.A. establishment there for sailors of the U. S. Asiatic Fleet, which will base there for six months.

The Navy Y.M.C.A., up until April of this year, had only two secretaries: Mr. Paul W. Brown, executive, and Mr. A. C. Ellis, social secretary, but, with the rapid growth of the work, it has been necessary to increase the staff. Mr. Amos W. Hazard with Mrs. Hazard came from the Newport, U.S.A., Y.M.C.A. in April of this year to become physical director here; Mr. C. F. Li has recently become Chinese secretary, and next month Mr. Judd, of the Presidio Y.M.C.A. in San Francisco, will arrive here to take charge of the business office and the religious work.

During Mr. Brown's three years as head of the Navy Y.M.C.A. in Shanghai a splendid new building has been erected at the corner of Szechuen and Hongkong Roads, a large summer Navy Y.M.C.A. camp has been established in Chefoo and the Hankow branch has been enlarged.

Interesting statistics of the work in Shanghai for the past four months record that: there were 32 different U.S. war ships in port, some of them making several visits with crews an average; the attendance of sailors at the new building reaching the astounding number of 52,000; there lodged in the building 19,000; number of meals served 30,000; 8,000 letters were written; library books were drawn 5,000 times, 6,000 sailors played billiards and 3,000 played other games. During the past six weeks 3,114 sailors used the swimming pool, 498 men having taken swimming instruction. On ten Sundays religious services were held on U. S. war ships in port and Sunday night song services were held at the Navy Y.M.C.A.

COURT FIXES PATTISON BAIL AT G. $2,000

Youth Arraigned On Charges Of Defrauding His Compradore

Alfred P. Pattison, said to be the son of a well known New Orleans family, who was arrested in a Shanghai cafe last week on telegraphic instructions from the American Consul-General at Tientsin, was granted bail in the sum of G.$2,000 when he was arraigned before Judge Charles S. Lobingier in the United States Court for China yesterday afternoon.

Mr. Pattison is charged on three complaints filed in Tientsin with having obtained by embezzlement and through false pretenses, approximately Tls. 6,700 from his compradore.

Mr. F. J. Schuhl yesterday made application for bail and suggested G.$1,000 which was opposed by U. S. District Attorney Leonard G. Husar, who asked for G.$3,000 in the case. Mr. Schuhl said their was no danger in Mr. Pattison leaving town and low bail would be all that would be needed. Mr. Husar, however, said that Mr. Pattison had left Tientsin at night rather suddenly five weeks ago, and had just been arrested, and a little higher bail wouldn't be objectionable.

Judge Lobingier set the bail at G.$2,000. It has not been decided as yet whether the witnesses in Tientsin will be brought to Shanghai for the trial, or whether the trial will be held in Tientsin.

RUGBY CLUB VICTOR OVER THE HAWKINS

Good Game On Cricket Club Grounds On Sunday

GOOD PROSPECTS

Shanghai Will Have Good Team This Season, Belief

The Rugby Football game between the S.R.F.C. and H.M.S. Hawkins, played on Sunday, resulted in a victory for the Club by 11 to nil. The game was played on the S.C.C. ground starting at 3 p.m.

The Club for the most part in the first half kept the Hawkins defending. The heeling of the Club forwards was good until it reached the back row when the ball was literally kicked out. This fault was however soon remedied and as a result the three-quarters took part in a number of promising runs. It is perhaps worth mentioning that a scrum half is more or less helpless when his forwards pursue these tactics.

The first try came after 10 minutes play when Webb picked up in the loose and passed to Focken, the ball eventually travelling to Bichard who scored far out after a capital run. The kick failed. (3-0)

After this score more was seen of the Navy backs who put in runs but were unsuccessful in penetrating the Club defence. Following a scrum in the Navy 25 the ball was passed out to Goolden who went through on his own to score between the posts. Dewar converted (8-0).

After the interval the Navy, especially the forwards pressed hard and on more than one occasion were all but over. The situation was eventually relieved by Goolden who found touch with a long kick.

The final try originated through McMeekin, who seeing it impossible to break through, took a drop at goal but failed, Nicholl who was backing up scored far out on the right, the same player failed with the kick. (11-0)

Five minutes before the end Lampert for the second time in succession put his knee out and it is feared will have to rest at least a month.

The play throughout was very fast and plenty of good work was shown, the forwards on both sides. McBride particularly for the Hawkins and Fleury, Stewart, and Grew for the Club.

The Club backs although presented with several opportunities seemed unable to make the best of them. Bichard and Goolden showed up well, the latter more so in the second half on going back to his old position as scrum half, though on many occasions was too selfish.

St. Croix playing back for the Navy kicked excellently. From the form shown so early in the season there appears every prospect of fielding an excellent Shanghai side.

ZEV AGAIN IS VICTOR; WILL RACE ABROAD

American Turf Champion To Seek World Honors At Longchamps Meet

(Reuter's Service)

Louisville, Nov. 17.—In a mile and a quarter race here today Zev beat In Memoriam by a nose.

(Reuter's Service)

Louisville, Nov. 18.—Zev's victory over In Memoriam yesterday probably means that he will seek international honors, as the winner has been invited to compete in a six-cornered international race for a million franc purse at Longchamps next May. Mr. Sinclair, the owner of Zev, stated that Zev would undoubtedly compete in the race abroad, if the offer still held good, after his race against My Own, in the latter part of November.

It is claimed that, as a result of his victory yesterday, Zev becomes the greatest money-winning horse on the turf. Mr. Sinclair yesterday cleared £5,000, thus increasing Zev's total winnings to £60,215. It is stated that this beats the records of the English cracks, Isinglass (£58,255) and Donovan (£55,443).

The Dog Watch

By Westa

SUNDAY being a nice bright day, the golfers were out in force. They swarmed all over the city's courses, public and private digging up turf on eighteen holes, and alibis on the nineteenth—most of the alibis having to do with putting.

"My putting was terrible," was the burden of their wail.

WELL, why was their putting terrible? Why wouldn't your putter behave? Why wouldn't mine? Why won't our putters ever do what we want them to?

The reason our putting always is of two varieties—bad and worse—undoubtedly is because we allow ourselves to be terrorised by the really harmless weapon with which we vainly try to roll them into the cup. We think we are going to miss them, and sure enough, we do.

Is there a proper putting style, adopting which we could hope for greater success? Most of the experts give a negative answer to this question. True, many of the authors of books on golf attempt to explain how it should be done, but from reading the books you will find almost as many explanations as there are authors. So in reality it finally devolves on each player to work out his own style.

BUT this much is certain: no matter what putting style you finally adopt, you will never sink them consistently until you are able to make yourself believe that they are going to drop when you tap them; in other words, until you acquire confidence.

"Oh, sure," (the chorus speaking) "Listen to Old Wisenstimer orate! Why doesn't he tell us how to acquire confidence?"

FOR the simple reason that there is no known method of telling anybody how to acquire confidence. It is a battle that every golfer must fight out with himself, like a man trying to decide whether to buy himself a new pair of warm pants for the winter, or spend the money for beer instead.

The nearest that anyone can come to giving a lesson in the difficult art of acquiring confidence is to cite examples of what others have done, thereby inciting those who lack confidence to resolve again in their own minds, and more firmly than ever, to make themselves believe they are going to overcome that one of their weaknesses.

Yesterday I happened to read of "something that another had done" along this line and since it filled me with a high resolve to improve my putting I will pass it along in the hope that others may also profit. Here it is:

Walter Hagen, believed by many on both sides of the Atlantic to be the world's best golfer, was explaining how he came to miss a tie with Arthur Havers in the British open. You will recall that Hagen needed a three on the seventy-second hole at Troon—a par 4 hole—to get his tie, and that after hitting his second into a trap guarding the green his chip for a three rolled past the hole, thereby costing him his chance for a tie.

"I cant't understand why that chip for a tie didn't drop," Hagen said. "All the while I was walking up I had a vivid picture in my mind of the ball dropping into the cup on my next shot. I could see it drop. I could hear it as it rattled against the sides of the cup, and then I could see myself walking over and picking it out of the hole. I was never so amazed on a golf course as when that ball failed to go in."

THERE you are! His ball was in a trap at the right of the green, some sixty or seventy feet from the pin, and yet he absolutely believed it would roll into the hole when he chipped it out, and was completely astonished when it didn't!

Compare that state of mind to your own as you stand over your ball, lying three feet from the hole, preparing to putt. Think of your complete lack of belief that you are going to sink that little three footer, and then think of Hagen, fifteen times as far away and in a sand trap at that, wholly confident that he is going down.

Well, is there any way to acquire that Hagen attitude?

None that I know of, brother, except to keep on trying!

Small Bore Rifle Club Holds Annual Meeting

The first Annual Meeting of the Small Bore Rifle Club opened on Saturday at 2 o'clock in very bad weather, quite unpromising for good scores. The light was very bad with heavy showers during most of the afternoon. Of the 26 entries received, 25 turned out to fire. The announcement of the arrival of the new Vickers rifles had swelled the entries, but unfortunately up to the day of opening the shoot, delivery had not been obtained. This fact caused a regrettable breakdown of arrangements to fire the whole program on the Saturday. Many who were held back by being without rifles were compelled to carry on during Sunday, and only owing to the kindness of a few members who had very sportingly loaned their rifles to the Club. Sunday gave a slight improvement in weather conditions, but with some showers, and threatening worse all day.

The handicaps were 4, 2 & 1 points on 1st, 2nd & 3rd prizes, and it was also decided to give a class allowance based on the new classification to come in on Saturday next of 4, 2 & 1 points to the D, C & B class competitors.

Full results follow:

The Telegraph Certificate. Won by M. Tsukasaki.

The Daily Mail Certificate. Won by L. Mottu.

Members are reminded that on Saturday next the November spoons will be shot for under the new classification of members into classes A/D as in the SRA.

On Sunday next the program will be Unlimiteds or practice during the morning, and at 2 p.m. sharp, the first competition for the Shanghai Sunday Times Cup.

The Club was photographed both on the mounds and grouned with the prizes, after which the prizes were kindly distributed by Mrs. Rarson, to whom a most hearty vote of thanks was proposed by the Hon. Secretary, and the Club adjourned to tea served in the Range Pavilion.

Dangerous Throat Soreness

PEPS A Sure Shield Against Inflammation & Disease

Because the throat is the main highway to the lungs, it is of first importance that you should take Peps whenever it begins to feel sore, tender or inflamed in the least.

Throat troubles most frequently result from neglected colds, sudden changes of the weather, strain and fatigue from unusual vocal effort (producing laryngitis). Added to this, there is peril in the dust-laden air containing the germs of tonsilitis, diphtheria and other deadly throat disease. Then there are a lot of people who are constitutionally delicate about the throat, and need to exercise continual care.

Peps are a real throat tonic; soothing, invigorating and germ-destroying. That is why they are so invaluable to all subject to throat troubles. As Peps dissolve in the mouth they give off powerful medicinal fumes. These not only impregnate the delicate vocal chords at the back of the throat with their purifying germicidal influence, but they act as a highly efficient curative for trouble in the pharynx and deeper passages of the throat.

Peps are real germ-killing tablets and their unique breatheable character makes them vastly superior to crude lozenges containing formalin or other harsh chemicals which can never reach the inner tissues where the Peps fumes go.

You can now obtain Peps of all the leading dispensaries, chemists and medicine vendors in Shanghai, Hongkong etc. Agents: Messrs. Wakefield and Co. (China) Ltd., 60 Kiangse Road, Shanghai.

Amateur Bouts At Bellew's Gymnasium

Billy Bellew announced yesterday that the Shanghai Athletic Association would put on a weekly entertainment of amateur boxing every Wednesday night at the Association's headquarters on Kiangse Road. These will be free to members of the Association.

Billy says he hopes in this manner to encourage boxing among the amateurs, and hopes eventually to develop some good local talent. All amateurs seeking a tryout will be accommodated at these shows.

Trophies will be presented to the winners of the principal bouts.

Two Basketball Games For Today

Two games will be played today in the championship series of the Chinese Basketball League. At four o'clock the St. John's quintet, champs of last year, will be seen in action with Fuh Tan University on the latter's outdoor court at Kiangwan. This game should be a hummer, as both teams are considered strongest in the league. Mr. Harry Kingman will referee.

In the evening at eight-thirty the Amateurs will meet the All-Black team in the gymnasium of the Chinese Y.M.C.A. The teams are evenly matched and the result of the game ought to be very close. Mr. Kwang will officiate.

FUNERAL PARADE FOR GENERAL HSU ON DECEMBER 10

Body Of Slain Police Chief To Be Taken To Tientsin

The funeral procession for the late General Hsu Kuo-liang, Chief of the Woosung and Shanghai Constabulary, will take place on December 10, according to official announcement made by the committee in charge of the arrangements. The remains will be shipped by rail to Tientsin where a mausoleum is being constructed.

General Hsu's post-humous tablet will be erected on December 7, the date of his birth. On the following day a public memorial service will be held in the Yamen of the Constabulary and on December 9, there will be family sacrifice, in accordance with Buddhist rites.

The coffin will be mounted on a gun-carriage and only the military, naval and police bands, and bearers of wreaths and scrolls will be included in the procession. A special car will be chartered for the convevance of the remains to the North.

General Hsu's valuable collection of curios is being packed for shipment to Tientsin and will be sent to the North immediately.

"The Blue Lantern"

No. 1 of Volume 1 of "The Blue Lantern" magazine, published at 25 Jinkee Road by Mr. Harry Chimes, has just made its appearance, joining numerous other Shanghai publications that have sprung up in the past few months.

The magazine is made up of short stories and miscellaneous material, mostly about Shanghai and contains numerous illustrations. One of the most interesting articles in the first issue is a study of Judge Peter Grain of the British Supreme Court. It is to be published monthly at a subscription price of $2 a year.

CLUB WOMEN TO HEAR LECTURE ON HISTORY OF DRESS

The Art Department of the American Woman's Club has announced December 6, the first Thursday of the month, as the date for the illustrated lecture on "The History of Dress" to be given by Miss Lucille Douglass in the club rooms, at 3.30 p.m. When Miss Douglass has traced the ascent of clothes from the fig-leaf to modern styles she will illustrate some of the current fashions by creations from the leading style shops of Shanghai displayed by living models. Not only the members of the art department, but all club members and their women friends are invited.

Armed Robbers Steal $170; 3 Arrested

Eight men, all armed with knives and pistols, entered a Chinese house at 3869 Robison Road about 1:30 o'clock on Sunday, ransacked the premises, and escaped with clothing and jewelry valued at $170. One of the alleged robbers was arrested a short time later on Markham Road and part of the clothing recovered, and two others were arrested yesterday.

Cornell Joins Other Schools Working Here

The University of Nanking has just announced that a Cornell-in-China club has just been organised with the approval of the Board of Trustees of Cornell University, Ithaca, New York, and will begin with assisting in the spread of agricultural extension work through Nanking University. It is hoped to follow up the agricultural work with engineering extension in the near future.

Feminine Frippery On Mere Male Leads To Arrest Of Robbers

Three arrests followed raidly in the wake of an armed robbery committed early Sunday morning by six men at 3869 Robison Road, the men being charged in the Mixed Court yesterday.

The robbery occurred at 1:45 a.m. and a report was made by telephone to Gordon Road station. Shortly thereafter a Chinese sergeant saw a coolie in a ricsha. "His clothing looked too bulky," the policeman said, "so I searched him." Underneath the top strata of ordinary male attire he found a succession of layers of dainty feminine apparrell. These garments were identified at the station as part of the loot from the armed robbery and as a result of information obtained from their wearer Detective Sergeant Macdonald was enabled to arrest two more men in a house at Pootung.

The case was remanded two weeks to allow further investigation.

"Deception"

In "Deception", the film now showing at the Carlton Theater, historical scenes even better than those that caused such a sensation in its predecessor, "Passion", form a background for one of the most gripping pictures that has been screened in Shanghai in some time. The story—the loves and passions of jolly, gruff old Henry VIII, and particularly his affair with Anne Boleyn—is carried out in artistic detail and with splendid character portrayal.

From the size of the mob scenes actors are probably secured for a mark a day—and a paper one at that—in Germany in this day and age. They were used liberally, and in fact, had to be in order to fit in with the massiveness and impressiveness of several of the star scenes in Westminster Abbey, at a spring festival, and outside the Palace at the Coronation of the newest favorite.

"Deception" is well worth seeing either from a historical point-of-view or for sheer enjoyment in seeing a romantic and dramatic page from the book of history presented interesting form.

LAUD HARDING AT DEDICATION ON MONUMENT

Memorial To Late President Is Unveiled At Peking

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, Nov. 19.—A magnificent marble monument to the memory of President Harding was dedicated yesterday by Dr. Schurman in the presence of 10,000 Chinese at the Central Park.

Subscriptions to the monument limited to one dollar per person, were raised under the auspices of the Chinese Foreign Relations Association.

The inscription states, inter alia, that the late President of the United States in convening the Washington Conference, made possible an epoch-making event which was the first deliberate and effective expression of the Great Powers in the consciousness of peace and war's utter futility. "We see in President Harding a life whose aspirations and achievements were in perfect accord with the sentiments of the Chinese people.

Dr. Schurman and Dr. Wellington Koo delivered speeches referring to the brilliant work in the cause of peace undertaken by the late President.

Wu Pei-fu Plans Expansion Of Honan Arsenal

Shantung Tuli Is Ordered To Clear Changyi Of Bandits

(Dah Tong News Bureau)

Peking, Nov. 19.—Wu Pei-fu has telegraphed the Ministry of Finance, asking it to pay all arrears of several months due him as Inspector-General of Hunan and Hupeh so that he might transfer the fund for the expansion of the Kunghsien, Honan Arsenal.

The Joint Bureau of the General Staff and the Ministry of War has been instructed by Tsao Kun to urge Tuli Tsong Shih-chi of Shantung to clear the Changyi district of all bandits at once and to postpone his trip to Peking.

Tien Yin-huang, leading member of the Shansi gentry, reinforced by the Shansi members of the Constitutional Party, has requested the Central Government not to appoint a new Governor for his province in order to avoid political complications.

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, Nov. 15.—Whether or not General Wu Pei-fu, the newly appointed Inspector-General of Chihli, Shantung and Shansi, should make his headquarters at Paotingfu is engaging the attention of militarists and politicians.

President Tsao Kun is credited with having suggested in a telegram to General Wu that he should move his headquarters from Loyang to Paotingfu, to which General Wo is reported to have replied that, in view of the situation in Honan and Szechuan, it would not be advisable to make a change meantime, but as soon as the situation cleared the suggested transfer might be considered.

Seaman Elects To Stay In Jail To Avoid Snakes

Patrick McCaffery went back to his cell in the American jail yesterday afternoon by his own free will.

McCaffery, a seaman, was arrested by U. S. Marshal Thurston R. Porter on Saturday at his own request, and appeared before Judge Charles S. Lobingier yesterday afternoon charged with vagrancy. He pleaded not guilty, saying that he had arrived in Shanghai on last Wednesday, had been paid off his ship with $105, and was arrested Saturday.

He was not averse to remaining in jail for a few days, however, he said, because he had been bothered with snakes for the last two nights, and preferred staying behind the bars where they couldn't get to him. He was sent back to await the chance to get a job out of the port.

Leach Fined $13 For Speedy Drive

Mr. T. C. Leach of the Central Garage was fined $13 on two charges by Magistrate G. W. King in the British Police Court yesterday. On the first charge he was fined $3 for failure to obey traffic signals at the corner of Nanking and Honan Road.

On the second charge he was fined $10 for parading another car at excessive speed on Bubbling Well Road near the Italian Consulate. Assistant Commissioner of Police Barrett, who was in a ricsha at the time, testified against him.

Philatelic Society To Meet Tomorrow

The Shanghai Philatelic Society will hold its first fortnightly meeting of the season at 5:30 p.m. tomorrow at the Royal Asiatic Society Hall, 5 Museum Road. An auction of members' duplicates will take place after the meeting. The meeting is open to the public.

The past season was a very successful one for the Society. Lectures, displays of stamps, auctions, and the discussion of matters of philatelic interest proved the incentive to good attendances and a stamp exhibition was held in June last. The active membership of the Society is now sixty-three.

The Committee for this season are: Chairman, E. Busch; Hon. Treasurer, E. H. Parrott; Hon Exchange Secretary, J. A. Scheibli.; E. P. Oliver, Lee Pai-tong; Hon. Secretary, Wm. C. Divers, 212 Dixwell Road.

Obituary

MRS. C. L. GOODRICH

Mrs. Chauncey L. Goodrich, for many years a well known resident of Peking, died there on last Thursday after an illness of several months. Mrs. Goodrich came to Peking as a missionary in 1879, the daughter of the Rev. Luther Clapp. Soon after her arrival she married Dr. Goodrich. She is survived by two children, Mrs. E. K. Smith of Tsing Hua College, and Mr. Luther Carrington Goodrich of the China Medical Board, Peking.

For many years she assisted Dr. Goodrich in translation work and during her entire lifetime in Peking has taken an active and leading part in numerous charities.

HOW TO KEEP BABY WELL

No other medicine is of such aid to a mother in keeping her baby from birth upwards well as Baby's Own Tablets, the Canadian children's remedy. These pleasant little Tablets are designed to take the place of Castor Oil, the old-fashioned teething powders, and other nasty and sometimes dangerous medicines formerly used for the little ones, and they are guaranteed absolutely safe and harmless.

Baby's Own Tablets are a specific for infantile indigestion, constipation, colic, diarrhoea, vomiting, simple fever, croup, colds and worms. They allay the pains of teething almost as if by magic, and quickly bring calm, restful sleep from which baby wakes up fresh and ready for its meal.

Of chemists, or post free, 60 cents the vial ($3 for six vials) from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., 60 Kiangse Road, Shanghai.

Wu Asks Funds For Payment Of Troops

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, Nov. 16.—General Wu Pei-fu has telegraphed to the Central Government reporting receipt of a telegram from Tuchun Hsiao Yao-nan to the effect that funds are urgently needed for the payment of troops in Hupeh Province. General Hsiao pointed out that he had thousands of men on the Szechuen border whose upkeep must be maintained, while the reinforcements in Hunan were clamouring for pay. Hupeh Province could not meet these demands. General Wu requested the Government to send funds to Hupeh as soon as possible.

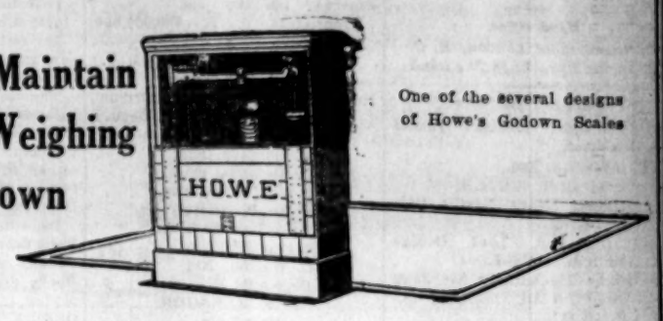
How to Maintain Accurate Weighing in the Godown



One of the several designs of Howe's Godown Scales

The best means known to secure and retain a sensitive balancing point is the use of the knife edge pivot. Chemists use an agate edge for weighing minute particles.

Howe's Godown Scales

have a steel knife edge. To maintain accuracy this must be protected as it is impossible to get accurate weight unless the knife edge pivot is sharp and smooth.

A Special Device

of balls moving in scientific shaped cups, allows movement in all directions and minimizes friction or scraping on the knife edge pivot, even when heavy loads are carelessly dropped on the platform. Thus absolute accuracy is maintained for years.

If you have business in the Far East—

The kind of a bank you need to help you is one whose business is exclusively of the Far East—

A BANK whose name and reputation will win the respect and confidence of your customers—a bank that is versed in the methods of the East: that knows its customs and markets—a bank that is your experienced business counselor as well as your financial agent.

Such a Bank is the
EQUITABLE EASTERN BANKING CORPORATION

ORGANISED and managed by the officers and directors of The Equitable Trust Company of New York, it will give you the same prestige abroad and the same personal service that distinguishes the parent organization—with the added convenience of a separate bank devoted exclusively to Oriental business.

Call at our New York or Shanghai Offices, and let us tell you how we can help you.

Spot and forward bar silver were each up ⅛d. in London on Saturday. The New York price advanced to 63¾ cents and the London-New York cross rate declined to 428¼.

At the opening our official quotations were unchanged from Saturday but as our market was very strong indeed, the Sterling rate was subsequently raised to 3s. 2½d., the Gold Dollar rate to 69 and the others changed accordingly. There were, however, always sellers at very much better rates than the official quotations.

In the morning business in Sterling was done at 3s. 4d. November delivery, 3s. 3⅝d. December and 3s. 3⅛d. January. Gold Dollars were done at 71¼ November delivery, 71 December and 70⅝ January.

However, there were always good sellers at these rates and in the afternoon the market was very strong indeed closing with sellers of Sterling at 3s. 4⅛d. November, 3s. 3⅞d. December and 3s. 3½d. January.

There were sellers of Gold Dollar at the close at 71½ November, 71¼ December and 71 January. There were sellers of Yen at 67½ November, 67⅝ December and 67⅞ January.

Banks were quoting 3s. 5d. and 73 for Sterling and Gold Dollar bills for near delivery. Bills for January delivery could probably have been placed at 3s. 4¼d. and 72½ respectively, while after China New Year bills could have been placed at 3s. 3½d. and 72.

There were possible buyers of Franc bills at 1390 for November-December, 1380 for January and 1370 for forward.

China and India both bought silver in London on Saturday and the market is reported as closing steady. New York also report their market as steady.

Weddings

The following notices of weddings on Saturday were omitted from Sunday's issue through error.

RAYDEN—WHITE

An extremely pretty Volunteer wedding was celebrated Saturday afternoon in St. Joseph's Church, which was decorated with bamboos and a profusion of white chrysanthemums when Miss Irene Louise White, daughter of Mr. W. A. White, director of Messrs. Probst, Hanbury, Ltd., become the bride of Mr. Charles Winter Rayden, eldest son of Mr. F. Rayden. The Rev. Father McDonald, S. J., officiated in the presence of a large number of friends.

As Mr. Rayden is a member of Machine Gun Corps of the S. V. C. a guard of honor was formed by his Company at the church, and the carriage, which took the bride to the church and which was gaily decorated with flowers, was also driven by two gunners of the corps.

The bride, who was given away by her father, Mr. W. A. White, was dressed in a white taffeta gown cut on simple but elegant lines and beautifully embroidered in Richlieu embroidery with silver thread and a lining of silver tissue. A bunch of orange-blossom fastened with a silver ribbon marked the waist line, while her long tulle veil, gracefully attached to her hair by a band of orange bossom, formed the train. The costume was finished with a nosegay of white roses and pale pink carnations. She was attended by her sister, Miss "Beattie" White, as principal bridesmaid, and the little Misses "Billy" and Vera Prince, cousins of the bride, in white frilled taffeta dresses with small bunches of tiny pink roses and with bands of pale pink roses and forget me-notes in the Early Victorian style.

The bride's mother wore a charming gown of cafe au lait georgette with hat to match, trimmed with bird of paradise plumes.

Mr. Basil W. Duthoir, in uniform, accompanied Mr. Rayden, while Messrs. V. Rose, J. Allan, T. Ayres and W. Davis acted as ushers.

Immediately following the wedding a reception was held for the newly married couple at "Whitehaven," 21 Avenue du Roi Albert, where she and her husband received congratulations standing under the bridal bell brought from the church. Mr. J. Ambrose of Probst, Hanbury, Ltd., gave the toast. Later, Mr. and Mrs. Rayden left for Hangchow by houseboat. The bride's going-away dres was of nigger brown taffeta with bands of beige. She wore a cape of crepe morocain of the same color with collar formed of brown and beige roses. Her small beige hat was trimmed with brown cere ribbon.

At the civil wedding which had taken place before the Consul-General at H. B. M. Consulate General earlier in the day, the bride wore grey crepe de chine trimmed with the palest shade of pink georgette and with hat to match.

Mr. and Mrs. Rayden will be "At Home" to their friends at 142 Route des Soeurs after Monday, December 3.

FERGUSSON—SIMPSON

On Saturday afternoon at Holy Trinity Cathedral Miss Louise Florence Simpson, was married to Mr. William Frederick Foster Fergusson, son of Mr. George John Fergusson, the Grove, Tynemouth, Dean Symons officiating. The bride, who was given away by Mr. John Gray, wore an effective gown of white satin and georgette and carried a shower bouquet of carnations. The wedding veil of white embroidered net was fastened with an orange blossom wreath. The bridesmaid, Miss Mabel Gray wore mauve crepe de Chine with hat of the same, and Mrs. John Gray, the matron of honor, wore dark blue with a blue hat trimmed with gold.

Mr. Alex Burnside acted as best man and Mr. R. K. Hamilton as usher. The reception following the ceremony was held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Gray, 84 Edinburgh Road, after which Mr. and Mrs. Fergusson left for Hangchow, the bride wearing a dark blue costume with a velour hat of the same shade.

Opium Culture In Kansu Widespread

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, Nov. 16.—Information has reached Peking of the unprecedented extent to which opium is being cultivated in the provinces of Kansu. In many towns and villages the entire population have reverted to the smoking habit. The extent to which this traffic is affecting the trade of the province is revealed by the fact that travellers experince unusual difficulty in obtaining carts for transport purposes, the carts being employed in conveying opium at more profitable rates than those usually obtaining. One traveller bound from Lanchowfu to Tientsin when making application for carts was informed that if he permitted the carriers to transport opium at the same time the price would be one tael per cart but if he did not agree to these terms the price per cart would be $48.00.

Peace Proposals Made To Chekiang Lu's Son In Peking

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, Nov. 18.—From a mass of conflicting rumors and reports, it appears that certain negotiations are proceeding between General Lu Yung-hsiang and the Central Government. According to one quarter, the Government is ready to appoint General Lu Inspector-General of Fukien and Chekiang if the latter sends a circular telegram announcing his allegiance to Peking.

General Lu Yung-hsiang's son eral Wu Pei-fu is expected in a recently arrived in Peking. Gen- few days.

Always Something New On Brunswick Record

The perfect interpretations of classical and popular music by Brunswick phonographs and records is the talk of the musical world.

Highest musical authorities say Brunswick Records are ten years ahead of their time. Great musicians recognise this fact and the new artists of this generation have turned to Brunswick to immortalise their art.

Brunswick Phonographs enjoy the same leadership. The clearness, beauty of interpretation and tonal volume it reproduces is not equalled by any other make of phonograph.

Join The Red Cross!

THE American Red Cross chapter in Shanghai begins its annual drive for new members today, the campaign being under the management of members of the American Woman's Club. The campaign headquarters in charge of Mrs. Gardner Crane will be located in the office of the American Commercial Attache in the Robert Dollar Building. The drive is not for money, but for members who will show by their nominal membership fee of $2 their endorsement and approval of the splendid work done by this organisation. As was stated in these columns last week, the American Red Cross Chapter in Shanghai during the past year participated in two spectacular relief measures which served to bring the organisation into international attention.

The first was the vital relief service rendered in connection with the sending of supplies to the foreign and Chinese prisoners held by the Chinese bandits in Shantung Province during May and June of last summer and the other was the relief unit of doctors and nurses sent to Japan following the earthquake in September. The unit from Shanghai was the first to reach Japan following the disaster. Although these two enterprises attracted general attention, the public ordinarily does not hear of the day-to-day work of this organisation which is of equal importance. For example it opened the community kitchen in Hongkew and supplied the funds whereby hundreds of foreigners and especially destitute Russians were fed and supplied with clothing. It has maintained wards at the general hospital for the sick and destitute and is constantly administering direct relief to deserving cases and upon several occasions has supplied funds whereby destitute Americans have been enabled to return home.

The main feature of Red Cross Relief work is its business-like management, which, while keeping the humanitarian element in the foreground nevertheless handles the various relief measures in a thoroughly efficient and business-like manner. Its facilities for investigation prevent duplication of relief measures and imposition upon the public by underserving elements. A dollar given to the Red Cross provides a hundred cents of value and goes further for the purpose intended than through the average charitable channel. The American Red Cross has gained for itself the highest possible reputation for service in China and the Far East and although the bulk of its financial support for large relief measures such as famines necessarily must come from home, it is important that a strong chapter be maintained here for purposes of local relief and administration. By all means join the American Red Cross and if you are not solicited by some member of the drive committee send your $2 to the headquarters!

Warming Up For 1924

THE announcement of Senator Hiram W. Johnson of California as a candidate for the Republican nomination for President of the United States made last week and the announcement of William G. McAdoo as a candidate for the nomination on the Democratic ticket, adds interest to the meager political news which trickles through to the Far East. This makes two candidates each for the Democrats and Republicans, for President Coolidge is already an avowed candidate to succeed himself on the Republican ticket and a few weeks ago Senator Oscar W. Underwood of Alabama announced himself as a candidate for the Democratic party. These four candidates who are now out in the open provide interesting speculation on the trend of the 1924 campaign for the presidency of the United States.

Senator Johnson in his announcement declared "that the ensuing contest will determine whether the Republican party shall be a permanent instrument of reaction or whether it will respond to present-day conditions and aspirations." The California Senator favors a re-vitalised Republican party which would be an "instrument neither of static reaction nor of destructive radicalism." He is opposed to the League of Nations and all its subsidiaries. He was a "bitter ender" in the fight against the ratification of the Versailles Treaty and he made a trip to Europe last summer to investigate the League and came back more convinced than ever of the benefits of American isolation.

President Coolidge who will enjoy the advantages of presidential patronage in the fight for delegates to the Republican National Convention, is not assured of the nomination by any manner of means. This fact was intimated in a recent interview on the subject given out by Senator Moses, chairman of the Republican National Committee. Coming from New England, Coolidge couldn't be anything but conservative, but whether he deserves the title of "reactionary" which Senator Johnson is apparently trying to give him remains to be seen. Coolidge is still more or less of an unknown quantity in national politics, but although he has been at the helm of things in America but a few months he has created an immense amount of confidence in his ability to hold the ship steady while living up to his reputation of "doing a lot of thinking with a minimum of talking." His actions during the approaching session of Congress will in all probability settle his fate as to whether he will continue to grace the White House for another four years.

The complexion on the Democratic side as indicated in the two Candidates now out before the public is equally as pronounced from the standpoint of liberalism and conservatism as is indicated on the Republican side of the American house political. Senator Underwood is a conservative "safe and sane" Democrat, a man somewhat of the Harding type, but even more business like. His enthusiasm for the League of Nations and American participation in the salvation of the world is known to be none too ardent while McAdoo, being the son-in-law of former President Wilson is expected to be a complete advocate of all of the policies, hopes and ideals of his distinguished father-in-law.

Underwood brought himself into favorable attention throughout the land because of the part he took as a delegate to the Washington Conference. He handled several of the knotty problems of the Conference to the complete satisfaction of America as well as the other nations represented at the Conference. He was chairman of the sub-committee that handled several of the matters pertaining to China and especially the Chinese tariff. Dr. Sao Ke Alfred Sze, Chinese Minister to Washington is reported to have unofficially suggested to President Harding that China would like to have had the Alabama Senator head the American delegation to the Special Conference which is supposed to assemble out here if France ever ratifies the Washington treaties. Underwood will be handicapped in the race because of his residence in the South. It is never good politics for the Democrats to have a candidate from the South for the perfectly good reason that they can always carry the South anyway. They usually select their candidates from some of the Northern states for this reason.

McAdoo who has lived in New York most of his life, about a year ago moved to California and established a residence in Los Angeles. This broadens his field naturally, and enables California to live up to its reputation for liberalism by having candidates in each party of that complexion of mind but as wide apart as the two poles as to what they stand for. It is altogether too early to make any predictions in American politics, and especially so at this distance from the scene, but of one thing we may all be certain, the chief element in Congress in the coming session will be politics written in capital letters and with two senators out under the spotlight as candidates for the presidency this will be most especially the case.

:-: God Wills :-:

BY ROBERT H. DAVIS

This poem is causing widespread comment throughout the United States and is generally spoken of as the greatest poem of the year.

August 3, 1923, 2-43 a.m.

Facing his father and with his wife at his side, Calvin Coolidge was sworn in by the light of a coal oil lamp as the thirtieth President of the United States at 2:43 o'clock this morning, standard time, in the parlor of the Coolidge homestead, directly across the road from the house in which he was born.—Associated Press, August 3, Plymouth, Vermont.

I.

Rouse yourself, young man,
Rise from your bed—
From westward comes ill news;
The President is dead!

Cast off the garb of dreams,
Shake sleep from out your eyes;
The ether throbs your name as the Dark Angel flies.

What matter it be late?
That night lies at these hills?
Come forth and serve the State—
God wills.

No pomp to greet you, Sir,
No trumpet at your gate,
Only the stars look down—
And this is Fate!

The President is dead!
A scroll of life is read.

II.

Light the coal oil lamp;
Husband the flame.
Within that rustic room
Vague forms appear,
Mingling, whispering, all in solemn mien—
What great event is here?

Humble indeed the setting of the stage:
A plowman's home, a simple
fireside,
Rooted full a century
Against the snow and rain
And the high winds that ride
Vermont's green mountains like a hurricane.

The President is dead!

How still the scene tonight,
How sentient the air.
The elms hang listless,
Silence broods—save here and there
The half-heard speech of earnest
men,
The soft voice of a woman
Now and then.

The President is dead!

III.

Father and son stand face to face,
Nor blood of kings flows in their veins:
Two of the Anglo-Saxon race
Born of the soil.
Marchers they, who found their place
In the pageant of toil.
And lo, in the dark of that pregnant hour,
Destiny calls the son to power,
To steer a ship whose captain died
Holding the helm in an ebbing tide.

IV.

The President is dead!
You serve us in his stead.
Time hurries by—
Lift your hand on high
Repeat these words:
"I DO SOLEMNLY SWEAR——"
His palm pressed on the Bible
there
"THAT I——WILL——"
How soft the night, and still,
"FAITHFULLY EXECUTE——"
How sonorous his speech
Reverberating through the room
Into the gloom.
"THE OFFICE OF PRESIDENT——"
From sire to son, and son to sire
Leapt glance on glance of mutual fire,
Signals flashing one desire
And one intent—
"OF—THE—UNITED—STATES——"
The quiet, all pervading,
Thrilled with speech
So strong and clear
It reached the confines of the world's frontier:
"AND WILL TO THE BEST OF MY ABILITY PRESERVE——"
Mortals are born only to serve—
"PROTECT AND DEFEND——"
And render to their fellow men
The best within them—

"THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES."

V.

It matters not whom death efface,
Another comes to take his place.
Let there be light!
The shadows flee away.
The helm now answers to the hand that on the Bible lay.

Dawn breaks.
Across the land and sea.
Comes the morrow.

God's will.

Editorial Comments

The Federal Reserve Board is credited once again with being in possession of a plan to stabilise the purchasing power of the American gold dollar. Stabilisation within rather limited and normal bounds is always desirable. On a larger scale it is purely theoretical, and may always remain so. Within reasonable limits there is no doubt as to the scientific soundness of this proposal. Some economists believe that the Federal Reserve Banks have nothing to do with price changes, and that their activities should in no way be governed by them. Just how a Federal Reserve system or any other banking system, if it is to function properly, can ignore price changes it is difficult to understand. While the Federal Reserve system in the future must give close attention to price changes it is doubtful whether the stabilisation of the gold dollar can be effected by it. One point must be borne in mind, that commodity prices in the United States are today too high and stand higher when compared with those of the rest of the world. As compared with March 1 last, the U. S. index figure in August showed a net decline of 8 percent, although it was 6.3 percent above August 1, 1922 and 20.8 percent higher than the low figure of June, 1921, but 38.5 percent under the peak of February, 1920. As compared with August 1, 1914 last August's index figure of the United States was 47.2 percent higher. Indeed, a partial check in the rise of some wholesale prices in America has already suggested to some that the expansive movement is already under control. Inflation in America must necessarily mean less foreign business for the country, and in the end result disastrously in the home markets.

Stimulating Discourses

WITH EXCERPTS FROM GREAT THINKERS

By Mathy

LUCIUS ANNAEUS SENECA

Deterred by his father from the pursuit of philosophy, he entered on the duties of a profession. He became an advocate, and distinguished himself by his genius and eloquence in pleading causes. Entering on a political career, he became a successful candidate for the quaestorship, which was an important step towards the highest offices of the state.

He had two sons, one of whom expired in the arms and amid the kisses of Helvia less than a month before Seneca's exile to Corsica. To the other, whose name was Marcus, he makes the following pleasant allusion: After urging his mother Helvia to find consolation in the devotion of his brothers Gallio and Mela, he adds, "From these turn your eyes also on your grandsons—to Marcus that most charming little boy, in sight of whom no melancholy can last long. No misfortune in the breast of any one can have been so great or so recent as not to be soothed by his caresses. Whose tears would not his mirth repress? Whose mind would not his prattling loose from the pressure of anxiety? Whom will not that joyous manner of his incline to jesting? Whose attention, even though he be fixed in thought, will not be attracted and absorbed by that childlike garrulity of which no one can grow tired? God grant that he may survive me: may all the cruelty of destiny be wearied out on me!"

Whether the prayer of Seneca was granted we do not know: but, as we do not again hear of Marcus, it is probable that he died before his father, and that the line of Seneca, like that of so many great men, became extinct in the second generation.

It was probably during this period that Seneca laid the foundations of that enormous wealth which excited the hatred and ridicule of his opponents. There is every reason to believe that this fortune was honorably gained. As both his father and mother were wealthy, he had doubtless inherited an ample competency: this was increased by the lucrative profession of a successful advocate, and was finally swollen by the princely donations of his pupil Nero. It is not improbable that Seneca, like all the wealthy men of their day, increased his property by lending money upon interest No disgrace attached to such a course.

The boyhood of Seneca fell in the last years of the Emperor Augustus, when, in spite of the general decorum and amiability of their ruler, people began to see clearly that nothing was left of liberty except the name. His youth and early manhood were spent during those three and twenty years of the reign of Tiberius, that reign of terror, during which the Roman world was reduced to a frightful silence and torpor as of death; and although not thrown into personal collision with that "brutal monster," he not unfrequently alludes to him, and to the dangerous power and headlong ruin of his wicked minister, Sejanus. Up to this time he had not experienced in his own person those crimes and horrors which fall to the lot of men who are brought into close contact with tyrants. This first happened to him in the reign of Caius Caesar, of whom we are enabled from the writings of Seneca alone, to draw a full-length portrait.

Caius Caesar was the son of Germanicus and the elder Agrippina. Germanicus was the bravest and most successful general, and one of the wisest and most virtuous men, of his day. His wife Agrippina, in her fidelity, her chastity, her charity, her nobility of mind, was the very model of a Roman matron of the highest and purest stamp. Strange that the son of such parents should have been one of the vilest, cruelest, and foulest of the human race. So, however, it was, and it is a remarkable fact that scarcely one of the six children of this marriage displayed the virtues of their father and mother, while two of them, Caius Caesar and the younger Agrippina, lived to earn an exceptional infamy by their baseness and their crimes.

Possibly this unhappy result may have been partly due to the sad circumstances of their education. Their father, Germanicus, who by his virtue and his successes had excited the suspicious jealousy of his uncle Tiberius, was by his distinct connivance, if not by his actual suggestion, atrociously poisoned in Syria. Agrippina, after being subjected to countless cruel insults was banished in the extremest poverty to the island of Pandataria. Two of the elder brothers, Nero and Drusus Germanicus, were proclaimed public enemies: Nero was banished to the island Pontia, and there put to death: Drusus was kept a close prisoner in a secret prison of the palace. Caius, the youngest, who is better known by the name Caligula, was summoned by Tiberius to his wicked retirement at Caprea and there only saved his life by the most abject flattery and adroit submission.

Hall's Distemper has led the way to a new era in house decoration—the era of brighter, cleaner and healthier homes.

It is the most durable of all decorations, lasting for years with freshness unimpaired, whereas wall-papers deteriorate from the first day by fading and accumulating dust and dirt.

Hall's Distemper is a thorough disinfectant, and is applied directly upon the wall, forming a hard surface, from which dust and dirt may be "spring-cleaned" by lightly sponging with warm water.

Hall's Distemper

Dr. Chatley Speaker At Quest Society Meeting

At the meeting of the Quest Society last night Dr. Chatley spoke on "Earthquakes: Local and Otherwise." He commenced by describing in general terms the instruments which are used for observing the tremors of the earth's surface. The use of horizontal and inverted pendulums was referred to as an improvement on the older methods which employed vertical cylinders or balls in cups and some details were given of the very delicate Galitzin seismographs which are the last word in seismographic instruments. Reference was also made to the statistical and topographical study of shocks perceptible to all and to the general association of earthquake regions with fault lines, ocean abysses and volcanoes.

He went on to speak of the results of the analysis of the instrumental records, pointing out how a comparison of the records at various stations of any one shock of known location enables the speed with which the tremor is transmitted to be calculated. The secondary waves due to direct transmission through the body of the earth and by reflection from various parts of its surface indicate certain definite ideas as to the rigidity of the interior of the earth and provide a means by which the position of a shock can be computed from instrumental records at a distant place. A study of the numerical frequency and relative magnitude of the shocks also serves as a rough guide to the future probabilities of quakes in any one locality.

Dealing with the causes of earthquakes he pointed out that the layers or strata of rock of which the surface of the earth is composed show cracks at various places which may extend for many miles and along these cracks the rocks show clear signs of having moved. Such a crack is termed a "fault line" and zones of great earthquake activity tend to lie on or near important fault lines. The varying thickness of the crust of the earth, as distinguished from the plastic "magma" beneath, is also a factor and it appears certain that the places where the surface slopes rapidly (as in the Tuscarora Deep east of Japan) are points of weakness. The continuous process by which rivers carve away the hills and deposit the material as silt or mud in the sea is one of the main factors in disturbing the balance of the crust; in addition to this there may be heat effects.

The mental effects of earthquakes are very important; in view of the regularity and lack of discrimination shown by quakes they cannot be regarded as the "Decree of Heaven" in the Chinese moral sense, but there is still a wide belief in the retributive character.

Some four thousand earthquakes are recorded in Chinese annals, but the most serious ones have been in the mountainous areas. Some forty are recorded within about five hundred years in Shanghai but no great danger has been experienced in any of them. The most active local centers are in northern Anhui and southern Fukien respectively. There is an excellent observatory at Siccawei and small tremors are recorded quite frequently. Engineers are interested in buildings which can resist shock and obviously those forms which are tied together at the floors—steel cage and reinforced concrete—are preferable. Some forms capable of oscillation will stand well but obviously nothing can resist a really bad shock.

Hints To Pay Up May Be Given By America To Debtor Countries

(Reuter's Service)

Washington, Oct. 20.—The American Debt Funding Commission met today and approved the form of its annual report to Congress, which contained the significant statement that the commission "hopes to obtain further adjustments with the various debtor governments at the earliest possible date.

While there was no elaboration on the expression from any member of the commission the statement was regarded in many quarters as the first hint from official sources that another communication may be sent to debtor nations advising that the American government awaits their funding proposals. The report recites the negotiations and settlements with Great Britain and Finland and the full liquidation of Cuba's debt, but as for the others little progress is reported.

The commission now has to deal with debts of foreign countries amounting to $5,970,117,427, on which interest amounting to $1,088,457,478 has accrued. The combined total of interest and principal owed by the several governments is given at:

Armenia, $14,263,196; Austria $27,664,065; Belgium, $445,782,734; Czecho-Slovakia, $109,423,344; Esthonia, $16,788,728; France, $3,917,325,974; Greece, $16,125,000; Hungary, $1,989,286; Italy, $1,973,879,133; Latvia, $6,032,478; Liberia, $30,168; Lithuania, $5,977,953; Poland, $181,839,315; Roumania, $43,218,878; Russia, $237,242,054, and Serbia $60,992,592.

NO WORD FROM RUSS

It was disclosed by the report that the commission has not been in touch "in any way" with the governments of Armenia, Austria, Greece, Liberia or Russia. The original loan to Russia was $192,601,297, made during the war, but nothing has been heard from that government since. As for Austria, Secretary Mellon has granted consent for a twenty year postponement under authority of a Senate resolution and therefore no principal or interest will come from that source for some eighteen years more.

Going into detail of the status of the debts with the other governments, the report says the Belgian Ambassador expressed the hope in June, 1922, that he could on his return from Belgium lay before the commission definite proposals for the consolidation of the indebtedness of Belgium. Except for certain informal discussions, the report adds, no proposals or suggestions have been as yet received. The discussions concerned the consolidation and the exact status of the Belgian debt.

CZECHO-SLAV PLAN

"Representatives of the Czecho-Slovak government," the report continues, "who came to Washington last May, have returned to Prague after bringing about an agreement as to the amount of the debt of their country to the American Relief Administration and the United States Grain Corporation but leaving for further discussion the final settlement with the War Department and the United States Shipping Board. It is understood they will return to the United States this autumn to continue the negotiations.

"The government of Esthonia is expected to appoint representatives to negotiate with the commission shortly.

"The government of France sent a representative to negotiate with the commission in the summer of 1922.

After a full discussion and the presentation of complete figures the French representative returned to France to confer with his government. No further proposals or suggestions have been received since his departure.

"The Hungarian Minister at Washington, appointed by his government to negotiate with the commission, has advised the commission that his government desired to fulfil its obligations to the United States and hoped shortly to propose some plan for refunding.

ITALY STARTS PARLEY

"The government of Italy has carried on some preliminary correspondence, in regard to the sending of representatives to Washington, but no representatives have yet been appointed and no proposals have been received.

"The government of Latvia has authorised its ministers for foreign affairs and of finance to enter into negotiations with the commission for a settlement of the debt of Latvia to the United States.

"The government of Poland is endeavoring to bring about an agreement with the War Department as to the final figures of their indebtedness and, after having done so, it is expected that negotiations for a refunding may be begun.

"The representatives of the government of Roumania came to Washington in November, 1922 and held meetings with the commission. Complete figures were presented as to the financial conditions of Roumania. The Roumanian representatives did not have authority to enter into any binding agreement for refunding, but made statements to the effect that it was the intention of their government to meet the indebtedness as soon as it became possible to do so, and asked that their visit might be considered as a preliminary one, further negotiations to be undertaken at a later date.

"The government of Jugo-Slavia has expressed its intention of sending representatives to the United States shortly, for the purpose of presenting to the commission the point of view of the Jugo-Slav government, regarding the adjustment of its war debts to the United States."

Children Cry for Fletcher's

CASTORIA

Fletcher's Castoria is particularly a preparation for Infants and Children made agreeable to the taste, acceptable to the stomach and pleasant in its action. It has been in use for over thirty years and has always been one of the most highly esteemed of all cathartic preparations. It has one great advantage over other preparations of its kind in that while it opens the organs readily and completely, it does not have a tendency to produce subsequent constipation so much to be dreaded.,

It was only after years of research in the fields of herbs and roots for a combination of purely vegetable matter that would have all the virtues of Castor Oil, without its disagreeable, nauseating properties, especially when used for infants or children, that the formula used in Fletcher's Castoria was found, and which for over 30 years has proven its worth. Try it.

Save the Babies

Infant mortality is something frightful. We can hardly realize that of all the children born in civilised countries, twenty-two per cent., or nearly one quarter die before they reach one year, thirty seven per cent., or more than one third, before they are five, and one half before they are fifteen! We do not hesitate to say that a timely use of Castoria would save many of these precious lives. Neither do we hesitate to say that many of these infantile deaths are occasioned by the use of narcotic preparations. Drops, tinctures and soothing syrups sold for children's complaints contain more or less opium or morphine. They are, in considerable quantities, deadly poisons. In any quantity, they stupefy, retard circulation and lead to congestion, sickness, death. To avoid any possibility of giving your child opiates, or narcotics of any kind keep Fletcher's Castoria in the house, and Save the Babies.

"Save Your eyes"

OPTOMETRISTS ASSOCIATE OPTICIANS
BETTER VISION THROUGH SCIENTIFIC OPTOMETRY

A REASON FOR

that supremacy which so decidedly makes our glasses excel, is that we have precision instruments in the hand of a graduate optometrist to conduct scientific sight-testing, and a perfectly equipped shop in which to make high grade lenses.
